

TrakMotive® Advantage

With Over 580 Million Application Options Available
We've Got You Covered!

KEY MARKET COVERAGE

TrakMotive has expanded their New Window Regulator program to well over 2,400 sku's, which now provides comprehensive coverage for over 580* million application coverage options on the road today.

New Replacement Window Regulators Represent a Significant Sales Opportunity
 Currently there are over 800* million automotive windows with regulators on the road today. With a failure rate of .96%, that equates to over 8,830,600 potential window regulator sales. This represents a great sales opportunity for you!

Additionally, through extensive engineering research and design, we can provide more coverage with fewer sku's than our competition. That means a better R.O.I. opportunity for you!
